

Own Best Friend

Write down what it is you're worried about in the first column.

In the second column, imagine what your best friend would have to say about the thing you're worried about; how would they reassure you, rationalise the worry and encourage you?

Things I'm worried about	What would my best friend say?